NATIONAL WAR FRONT - South Kanara Dt. - Lady Lecturer Miss Parvati Bai (Miss) - Tour to Delhi - Permission Requested

In order that actual working and living conditions of the members of the W.A.C.(I) may be made more known in Bangalore Junior Commander, A.T.S.O., W.A.C.(I), Bangalore has requested the District Organiser, South Kanara to send Miss Parvati Bai, Lady Lecturer, to Delhi, to undergo a course of instructions for 12 days commencing approximately from 25-4-1944. Her to and fro journeys may involve about 7 days. If the total period 19 days is to be counted as on duty, the sanction of the Government is necessary under Madras Travelling allowance Rule 52 (a) and (c). From the Bangalore, Junior Commander's letter, it is presumed that the Travelling allowance will be borne by the Recruiting General, Headquarters, India. Junior Commander is being addressed separately in this regard.

2 Original communications of Junior Commander, Bangalore Lady Lecturer, South Kanara may be transmitted to the Public (War) Department with a request to accord necessary sanction

pp. 1-2 CF [From the P.O. N.W.F. U.O. NOTE No. 1992/4th M.I. d 12/4/44

Please see the U.O. note from the P.O. on pp. 1-2 CF and its enclosures on pp. 3-5 CF

p. 5 CF The P.O. A.T.R.O Bangalore requests that Miss. Parvathi Bai Lady teacher N.W.F S. Kanara may on 22.02 be permitted to proceed to Delhi to undergo a Course of instructions for 12 days Commencing approximately from 25-4-44 The P.O. recommends pp. 1-2 CF. (1) that sanction may be accorded for the tour of the lady teacher under rule 52 (a) & (c) of the M.T.A. Rules and that the T.A may be paid to her from N.W.F allotment in case it is not paid to her by the Recruiting Crewar Headquarters

2 There seems to be no objection to granting permission to Miss Parvathi Bai to proceed to Delhi & to treat the journey as for purposes of pay & allowances as performed on duty. But it is not clear why see (5) T.A. should be paid from N.W.F funds in case the Recruiting Crewar Headquarters refuse to pay it.

pay p. 5 CF Miss Parvathi is only one of the four ladies who are to proceed to Delhi & the Recruiting General Headquarters are to pay the T.A. of the three ladies they will no doubt pay the T.A. of Miss Parvathi Bai also. Further the object of the journey is to further the interests of the W.A.C.(I) only It therefore seems that the T.A. should be met by the military dw

departmentally. For orders whether the claim may be accorded for the journeys of Mrs Parvathi Bai / This may be subject to the specific sanction [illegible] T.A. passed / done 18/4/44 by the Recruiting General Headquarters. Finance may see for remarks.
